Privacy statement

The Association only collects the minimum personal data of Members to ensure that it meets its lawful obligations as an Incorporated Organisation. With the exception of a member's name, suburb and phone number (being a condition of becoming a Justice of the Peace) the Association shall not release in anyway whatsoever any additional data it holds of its Members unless the Member has given their personal consent or, it is required or authorised by law.

Where the Association has outsourced a function to an outside body and it is necessary for that body to have access to additional data to undertake its contract of service, data under this clause will be limited to the minimum requirement to fulfil that specific function.
